

2010 Student Application

American Wilderness Leadership School-(AWLS)-Jackson, WY

June 29 – July 5, 2010

SCI Foundation/AWLS is a permittee of the Bridger-Teton National Forest and is an equal opportunity service provider.

The Program

For the past 33 years, SCI student sessions have been valuable as part of the summer programs at the SCIF's American Wilderness Leadership School in Jackson, Wyoming. In meeting the program mission the outdoor instructional programs are focused on conservation and natural resource management that provides students a base of knowledge to better understand and to evaluate today's and future conservation issues.

- The American Wilderness Leadership School's seven day student program presents a base knowledge of wildlife ecology and conservation learning that becomes a central point around which leadership training is provided. Students learn about the roles of leaders in a variety of situations and how to apply leadership skills that can launch them on their journey to become leaders for tomorrow for wildlife management and conservation.
- This program offers recreational activities that include an overnight camping trip in the mountains, a whitewater raft trip on the Snake River, and more.
- The cost of sponsoring individuals is $900 with the sponsor usually arranging and paying/assisting round trip airfare or ground transportation expenses. Transportation from the Jackson Airport to the school is provided.

Facilities

The Wyoming site is an American Camp Association accredited Conference Center surrounded by the marvelous beauty of the Gros Ventre Wilderness area within Bridger-Teton National Forest. Granite Creek flows near the Joel Loveridge-Jim Conklin Education Complex which provides a professional quality kitchen, dining room, instruction and dormitory facilities in addition to nine staff cabins and six support buildings. Linens, pillows, and towels are provided.
